ORDER AFTER 2/15/19 AND 3/27/19
CASE MANAGEMENT CONFERENCES

The Court held a Case Management Conferences in the above matter on February 15 and March 27, 2019. Appearances are as noted on the record. The case will proceed as follows:

1. By April 10, 2019, the parties must submit a proposed briefing and hearing schedule for Defendants' demurrer to Plaintiff Andrew Baker's Complaint to the Court by email to complex305@sftc.org. The parties must also inform the Court whether Defendant Strange Brew Strategies, LLC remains in the case, and if so, a proposed briefing hearing schedule for any intended

1 challenge to the pleadings by Strange Brew.

2 2. Discovery as to Strange Brew remains stayed until further order of court.

3 3. If Plaintiff Trigon Trading Pty. Ltd. remains in the case after the federal court issues its
4 order, the deadline for Defendants to respond to Trigon's Complaint will commence to run on April 30,
5 2019. Parties should propose a briefing schedule by May 6, 2019. If Trigon remains in the case,
6 plaintiffs and defendants will confer regarding a Consolidated Complaint and a combined briefing
7 schedule for any challenges to the pleadings.

8 4. The parties are urged to coordinate with all counsel in the Federal Consolidated Action
9 regarding joint participation in discovery in order to limit unnecessary duplication of effort.

10 5. Once the named plaintiffs and plaintiffs' counsel are settled in the Federal Consolidated
11 Action, the Court encourages the parties to consider further mediation efforts.

12 6. The next Case Management Conference is set for July 2, 2019 at 1:30 p.m. in Department
13 305 of the above-entitled court. A joint case management statement<sup>1</sup> must be filed, and two copies
14 delivered to Department 305, no later than three court days prior to the conference.
